

CITY NEWS

In probate court yesterday a settlement and decree was made in the estate of George F. Morse of Burlington.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Frank C. Whitcomb and Mabel Richfield, both of North Bend street.

Thomas E. Armstrong, a farmer of Moore's Forks, N. Y., and Elizabeth H. Davidson of the same place were married Thursday by the Rev. C. V. Grier at the Methodist parsonage.

In two games of base ball played here Monday and Tuesday between the University of Vermont and the Troy team of the New York State League, the latter won with the scores of 5 to 3 on Monday and 8 to 6 on Tuesday.

Lieut.-Col. William S. Peirce, ordnance department, United States army, formerly of Burlington, and Mrs. Harriet Roberts Hall were married in Concord, N. H., April 19. They will be at home after June 1 at The Woodward, Washington, D. C.

The water in the lake is at present two feet lower than yesterday at this time and this undoubtedly means that the lake front will not be troubled by high water this year. The water level went down about an inch Tuesday and will not rise any unless there is a heavy rain for several days.

Mrs. H. F. Perkins has received word of the death of her father, James R. Edwards of Baltimore, Md., who is known to many in the city through his having spent several summers in Burlington and on Grand Isle. He suffered a paralytic shock April 19 and died the following morning.

Louise N. Leahy of this city was married to Frank M. Lawrence of Williston at St. Mary's Cathedral Wednesday at 6:30 a. m. E. J. Sullivan acted as best man and F. Edna Lawrence as bridesmaid. After a short stay in Albany, N. Y., the couple will reside in Williston.

In the county clerk's office Friday the divorce suit of Mildred Elliott vs. Harry Elliott of Colchester was entered. The petition alleges that the parties were married June 18, 1900, and separated November 7, of the same year. Infidelity, intolerable severity and refusal to support are given as the grounds for action.

John Hutchins and Aleck Wagner of Cambridge were brought to Burlington last night by Deputy Sheriffs Sinclair and Smith of Cambridge and placed in jail, having been found on the June term of jailhouse court on a charge of stealing a bicycle. Aleck Wagner, wife of Aleck Wagner, was also brought here to be held as a witness.

James Briggs of Weston was arrested April 18 by County Warden R. M. Newton of Windsor county on a charge of shooting three deer in the closed season in the town of Bridgewater. He was brought before George M. Moore, justice of peace of Ludlow, and bound over to the June term of Windsor county court on bail of $500.

Dr. J. H. Dods, captain of the medical corps of the 1st Vermont regiment, left last night for San Antonio, Texas, where he has been ordered to report for two weeks' training. Two officers of the regiment, one from the signal corps and the other a captain of a company, have been in the field for the past three weeks and are expected home in a few days.

The police spent a money making scheme early Monday morning when they caught two small boys armed with a push cart taking away bottles from the rear of the second-class license place of R. M. Lambkin on Main street. The boys were arrested and returned the bottles, of which they had taken nearly four cases.

Joseph White was arraigned for the second time in city court yesterday, charged with intoxication. He pleaded guilty and was given the penalty for the second offense, $15 and costs of $2. He asked the court officer to step over to the bank while he procured the funds and this was done. As it was more than six months from the date of his first arrest, he was not obliged to disclose.

Bernard Gallacher was placed in custody yesterday to await trial in city court on a charge of forgery. He was given a hearing in the Windsor city court yesterday and held in $200 bail. The man is alleged to have altered the amount of a check. He has been serving time in Rutland for the theft of a watch and Sheriff Allen arrested him as soon as his time was up.

Clarence De Mar, who astonished the athletic world with his wonderful performance at the international race run under the direction of the Boston Athletic club April 18, is a former student of the University of Vermont and while here took part in the cross-country runs. De Mar was a member of the class of 1911, but left college in his third year. He came to the college from South Hero.

The Merchants' Protective association will hold its regular monthly meeting Thursday evening at eight o'clock. Matters pertaining to Merchants' week will be discussed, and the committee on insurance will report. Friday evening at eight o'clock, the executive committee will meet, when all members of the association are invited to be present.

In probate court Thursday Amos L. Atwood of Colchester was appointed administrator in the estate of William B. Atwood, to take the place of Mrs. Woodham B. Atwood, who resigned as administratrix. Henry Conlon and C. H. Shipman were appointed commissioners and appraisers. In the estate of John Flaherty of Burlington, Nolle J. Flaherty was appointed administratrix.

At the annual assembly of Burlington Council, No. 8, Royal and Select Masters, held at Masonic Temple last evening, the following officers were elected for the year ensuing: W. E. Gilbert, T. H. M. Russell Hallett, Dep. M. M. E. Sornborger, P. C. of W. C. Davis, treasurer; D. S. Bliss, recorder; H. H. Shuffet, Capt. of G. S. E. Trail, Cond. of C. W. F. Smith, Marshal; E. A. Hard, steward; G. H. Whitman, sentinel.

The will of W. W. Higley of Charlotte has been proved in probate court. C. H. Hecce was appointed executrix, the commissioners and appraisers being Stanton Williams and Frank B. Smith. For Hosea S. Wright of Worcester, Mass., E. C. Fay and E. B. Williams are commissioners and appraisers, the administrators being Clarence T. Wright, who was also appointed administrator of the estates of Eliza Thompson, who died in 1870, and Nancy Wright, who died in 1882, both of Jericho.

Respondent in its new coatings of paint and with every bit of metal shining its utmost, the Tiemondogora left on the first regular trip of the season Monday with a full crew and with an extraordinarily large amount of business for the first trip. The passengers numbered nearly a hundred. The boat returned in the afternoon and took away nearly as large a

WILL PAY RAILROAD FARE

Burlington Merchants Offer Inducements to Shoppers.

Merchants' Protective Association Guarantee Square Deal—Automobile Show in Burlington Next Week—Concerts Evenings.

Merchants' week is almost here. Already the decorations are blossoming out along Church street, and elsewhere in the downtown section, and the officers of the Merchants' Protective association are busy with the arrangements for this enterprise which is designed to redound to the advantage of the city, the tradesmen and the visitors from surrounding towns and counties. On Monday next the six big days will begin, and by Tuesday things will be as well under way as the Tiemondogora when she passes out by the north light.

Merchants' week is a novel idea in Burlington. It is not a street fair, nor is it a circus day spread out between one Sunday and the next. To call it a trade week is to describe it exactly. Burlington is the largest retail center between Boston and Montreal. The merchants of Burlington desire to bring the trade advantages of their city to the attention of the visiting trade and to the city, of course, is to their profit and it is also to the profit of buyers to become better acquainted with this market.

To make the occasion a special inducement to out-of-town people, railroad or steamboat fare both ways will be paid for the purchases of $25.00 or over. This amount need not be paid entirely at one place. The different stores will issue coupons. When the purchaser's coupons amount to a total of $25.00 they are to be taken to the secretary, Mr. Hopkins, who has offices in Stannard hall near the city hall, on Church street, and he will pay the fare.

The Burlington dealers announce that goods will be sold for less than regular price, and that the new plan is not a scheme to clear shelves of old stock, but rather an effort to advertise Burlington and bring the trade to the city. The Merchants' Protective association declares: "We guarantee you fair and courteous treatment. If anyone should take advantage of you, if anyone, merchant, huckster, restaurant or hotel, should in any way give you unfair treatment or make an exorbitant charge, we want to hear of it."

Vermont's first automobile show will be held in the armory of Company M. V. N. G. during Merchants' week. The club, composed of 15 young lady motorists, will give concerts every evening. To-morrow there will be a meeting of the Merchants' Protective association.

THE BURLINGTON MARKETS.

The past week has seen little change in the market. It is a trifle early yet for many of the vegetables, asparagus being looked over, and the first of the season set off by about the middle of the week. The price of strawberries is going down slowly. There has been a slight increase in the price of eggs. Meats and retail rates have not changed.

The following quotations are furnished by the Free Press by Jones & Isham, the Burlington city company, L. A. Chase and C. A. Barber.

WHOLESALE PRICES.

Beef dressed	50 to 10
Butter	24
Chicken	14
Lard	15
Hay, per ton, loose	$10.00
Hay, per ton, baled	$10.00
Hogs	$5.00
Lamb	11
Potatoes, bu.	45

RETAIL GROCERIES.

Asparagus, bunch	30
Beets, bunch	10
Butter, separator, creamery	28
Cabbage, lb.	04
Celery	08 1/2
Carrots, lb.	03
Cauliflower	20
Cheese, Swiss	06
Neufchatel cheese	10
Cream cheese, each	10
Cheese, Cheddar	20
Edam cheese, each	10
Sage cheese, lb.	22
Swiss cheese, lb.	40
Pineapple cheese	10
Walnut cheese	18
Welsh rabbit	10
Picnic cheese	10
Roquefort cheese, lb.	50
Eggs, doz.	22
Egg plant, each	20 to 30
Escarole	20
Flour, bread, lb.	$5.00 to 25
Flour, pastry, lb.	20
Lettuce, Boston ball head	10 to 15
Lettuce, home grown, head	06
Mince meat, lb.	18
New maple syrup, gal.	$1.00 to 1.25
New maple sugar, lb.	18 to 20
Olive oil, gallon	8.00
Onions, Spanish	06
Onions, Bermuda	06
Parsley, bunch	06 to 10
Potatoes, bu.	40
Radishes, bunch	06
Sweet potatoes, lb.	06
Tomatoes, lb., hot house	15 to 25

RETAIL MEATS.

Beef, roast, lb.	20 to 30
Beef, corned, lb.	15 to 20
Hams, lb.	30
Hams, sliced, lb.	30
Leaf lard, lb.	10 to 15
Native roasted chicken, lb.	10 to 15
Pork chops, lb.	20
Pork sausage	15 to 18
Porterhouse steak, lb.	25
Round steak, lb.	20
Salt pork, lb.	15
Sirloin steak, lb.	25
Spring lamb, hind quarter	12 to 15
Spring lamb, forward quarter	12 to 15
Spring lamb, chops	25
Tripe, lb.	10
Turkeys, lb.	35
Veal steak, lb.	30

RETAIL GRAINS.

Barley, cwt.	$1.40 to 1.50
Cornmeal, cwt.	$1.00 to 1.25
Hay, baled, cwt.	$8.00 to 10
Hay, loose, ton	$12.00 to 14
Feed, mixed, cwt.	1.00
Midland, cwt.	$1.00 to 1.10
Oats, lb.	40 to 45
Oat straw, baled, cwt.	60 to 70
Providence, No. 1, cwt.	$1.45 to 1.55
Providence, No. 2, cwt.	$1.40 to 1.50
Poultry wheat, cwt.	$2.00 to 2.20

RETAIL FRUIT.

Bananas, doz.	1.00 to 1.25
Imported bananas, doz.	1.00 to 1.25
Dates, lb.	10 to 15
Figs, doz.	2.00 to 2.50
Fresh figs, lb.	1.00 to 1.25
Grape fruit, each	1.00 to 1.25
Strawberries, basket	2.00 to 2.50
Pineapples, each	1.00 to 1.25

UNIVERSITY NOTE.

A financial report of the lake walk has just been submitted to the athletic supervisor by Chairman Ross. The total receipts were $125, total expenses $125, net profit $125. This money goes towards athletics.

HAPPENINGS IN VERMONT

(Continued from page 4.)

Duxbury, after a five-days' illness with bronchial pneumonia, Mrs. Culligan was the widow of Peter Culligan and was born in Ireland August 2, 1825, the daughter of James and Mary (Cannell) Redmond. She is survived by two children, John Culligan of Richmond and Mrs. John O'Neill of Duxbury. She also leaves eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild. The body will be taken to Richmond this morning and the funeral will be held there at ten o'clock, with burial in the Catholic cemetery in that place. The annual ladies' night of the Twenty-Five club was held at the Waterbury Inn Monday. After a banquet, B. R. Darnell, president of the club, introduced the speaker of the evening, the Rev. Fr. Cahill of Enosburg Falls. Fr. Cahill was formerly in Waterbury for a short time. All were glad to welcome him and listened intently as he gave an address upon "The Illusions of Life." Music was furnished by a violinist, clarinetist and pianist from Gilbertson's orchestra of Barre. Miss Margaret O'Neill went to Watfield yesterday, where she will stay with Miss Douglas.

MORROW.

Paul Johnson was ill with stomach trouble Sunday and Monday—George Boston, an old resident of this town, had a shock last Saturday morning—George Evans is going down the old barn on a new building place and is going to build a new one in its place—William Clark has been working in Middlesex the past few days—Leslie Dumas of South Payson is working for H. O. Ward—Carl Long of Watfield was in town Monday night—Mrs. Melvin Freeman is confined to the bed with a cold—Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Ward are in Boston—Clinton Ward went to Boston Tuesday. Mrs. Letsey Griffith, who was reported ill last week, is better—Hurt Weston and Charles Hurdle of Watfield visited at John Hurdle's Saturday.

WINDSOR.

Edward E. Harlow has moved into the Sylvester house owned by E. L. Bass—C. L. Landers has made 400 gallons of maple syrup this season and believes the season is the best he ever knew—Carl D. Chubb has sold his home place on Main street to Austin Harvey, taking the Harvey house in payment. The Harvey house has been in the Chubb family place has been vacant since the death of Mrs. Mary E. Harrington last winter—Charles Kendall has sold his place on the Steadard hill road to Celeste Gold. Mr. Kendall will move to Danby—Myron Smith has moved to Randolph, where he lately bought a house—The Rev. E. J. Felton attended the northern New York conference at Ogdensburg last week—Charles Lamphere and Frank Blackmer have moved to Derby, N. H.—The funeral of Levi E. Kidder was largely attended at his late home Friday afternoon. Following the service, which was held in charge of the Rev. J. W. Miller, H. A. Parkhurst, the Masonic ritual was impressively rendered, and the burial was at Fairview cemetery—Edwin R. Hatch was at the village Monday after several months' confinement by illness—A daughter was born April 22 to Mr. and Mrs. David Nelson—Nathaniel P. Chase was in Montpelier Saturday to attend the funeral of Myron F. Chase—Mrs. Hannah Spaulding, for many years the eldest person in East Bethel, died Sunday evening of old age, aged 83 years. The home of her son, George B. Spaulding, was at the time of her death. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Manning, who lived here for many years. She had 12 children, of whom three sons went to the Civil War and died during the war. There are seven surviving children: Romanzo of Pittsford, Ira of South Royalton, Rupert and George of East Bethel, Mrs. Jane Barron and Mrs. E. T. Benson of Springfield, Miss and Mrs. George Houghton of Peacham. Mrs. Spaulding was a veteran of the Civil War and died twelve years ago. The deceased came to this town with her parents,